

"Me and Billy"

Ride with the Real Billy the Kid

"Outstanding performance - brings history to life." Lincoln (NM) State Monument

Come ride with America's favorite outlaw - Billy the Kid.

The callow desperado who killed 21 men, one for each year of his life; robbed and rustled, tortured and murdered - while always laughing.

Or the lad who "sang with a beautiful Irish tenor" in Sunday School, organized and staged a musical show at the age of 12, and was always a compadre to the native New Mexicans.

Ralph Estes was Billy's best friend - rode, sang, fought with him. In this one-hour show, with music, Ralph tells of the real Billy, not the fiction created in a book by the man who shot him.

Ralph is a New Mexico State Chautauqua Troubadour who has performed "Me and Billy" with acclaim throughout New Mexico and the west for 15 years.
